ON-GOING PROJECT
Every Child, One Promise

Description:

The program matches a thoroughly screened and trained volunteer adult mentor with a child aged 4-17 who has at least one parent incarcerated in a State or Federal detainment facility. Both the mentor and mentee commit to spending at least one hour per week together for at least a year. The goal is help the child overcome the challenges associated with having an incarcerated parent and motivate and inspire him or her to set positive goals, make good decisions, and develop the capacity to succeed in education and life.
